

Kings, Queens and Castles

This week our home learning suggestions are all based around the theme "Kings Queens and Castles". We hope this give you the chance to work together as a family, for siblings to support each other and to cover different subject in a fun, interesting way.

Reading		Writing		Maths
1. Reading a variety of texts at home. This can include reading books, magazines, instruction manuals or recipes. 2. Think of a fairy tale that has a King or Queen in it (Cinderella, Princess and the Pea, Rapunzel etc) Write a book review about the story. 3. Rewrite your own version of the fairy tale and change one of the characters or the setting.		1) Create a menu for a Banquet. Explain after why you have chosen the food you have. 2) Imagine you are King or Queen for the day- write a diary entry explaining what happens during the day. Be as imaginative as you can. 3) Write a letter to the Queen. Remember to ask lots of questions using the correct punctuation marks. Spelling Shed Phonics Play Practise Common Exception Word spelling		1. Create your own word problems using Knights, Kings and Queens. 2. Can you design a castle using a range of different 2d shapes? 3. Why is the shape of a cannon ball a sphere and not a square based pyramid? Think about the shapes properties and explain. Matheltics TTRockstars
Science	Art/DT/Music	History		Geography
Waterproof experiment. Can you find a material that is best to keep a knight dry when he is protecting the King and Queen? Find different materials around your house. You could use toilet paper, cling film, kitchen foil and cotton wool. Which of these materials would keep the Knight dry?	Design and make your own Coat of Arms. Including all of your favourite things. Music- Learn the UK national anthem. God save the Queen.	Find out about a King or Queen. Research a previous ruler. What can you find out about them? When were they alive? Where did they live? What laws and rules did they make? Did they have any children? You might want to use last week's family tree skills to make a new family tree for your Royal King or Queen.		The Queen of England is also the Queen of the commonwealth. Find out all the Commonwealth countries and draw their flags.
			Discussion
			Have a discussion with your family about what you would do if you were King or Queen for the day. Do you have the same ideas? What is the craziest idea one of your family member has? Are there any rules you would get rid of or would you make more laws?

Art

An example Coat of Arms

National Anthem

God save our gracious Queen
Long live our noble Queen
God save the Queen
Send her victorious
Happy and glorious
Long to reign over us

God save the Queen
Thy choicest gifts in store,
On her be pleased to pour,
Long may she reign!
May she defend our laws,
And ever give us cause,
To sing with heart and voice,
God save the Queen!
